

Freepoint Commodities LLC

General Terms and Conditions

For the sale, purchase and exchange of Crude Oil and Refined Products

These General Terms and Conditions for the Sale, Purchase and Exchange of Crude Oil and Refined Products ("General Terms") shall be deemed to be incorporated in any agreements ("Transactions") to purchase or sell crude oil and refined products (collectively referred to as "Products") between Freepoint Commodities LLC and another party (each a "Party" and collectively, "Parties"). All terms used in these General Terms and in any Confirmation for a Transaction are defined when they first appear or in Section 23.

SECTION 1

AGREEMENT AND TRANSACTION PROCEDURE

1.1 Special Provisions. The special provisions (the "Special Provisions") of a particular Transaction, as evidenced by a Confirmation or other sufficient evidence of the Parties' agreement to a Transaction, and these General Terms (and, if applicable, Freepoint Marketing LLC's Marine Provisions) shall constitute the Parties' entire agreement as to such Transaction and shall be read and construed together.

1.2 Agreement Formation. This Agreement shall mean the legally-binding relationship established by (i) the General Terms, (ii) any and all binding confirmations and (iii) any and all transactions that the parties have entered into through electronic transmission or by telephone, but that have not been confirmed in a binding Confirmation, all of which shall form a single integrated agreement between the parties. The Parties shall be deemed to have entered into a Transaction, and a Transaction shall become effective and binding upon the Parties, from the moment on a particular date (the "Trade Date") when the Parties have agreed upon the economic terms of a Transaction or, if an amended Transaction, when the Parties have agreed to the amendments to the Transaction.

1.3 Confirmation Procedures. Within two (2) Business Days after a Transaction's Trade Date, Seller shall send Buyer a letter confirming the terms of the Transaction, including the economic terms (a "Confirmation"). If Seller does not send its Confirmation to Buyer within three (3) Business Days after the Trade Date, Buyer may send its Confirmation to Seller (in each case, the Party sending a confirmation, the "Sending Party," and the Party receiving a Confirmation, the "Receiving Party"). The Receiving Party shall confirm its acceptance and agreement to the terms of the Transaction as set forth in Sending Party's Confirmation within two (2) Business Days after its receipt. The failure to send a Confirmation shall not invalidate any Transaction agreed to orally. Absent manifest error, the terms of the Transaction contained in the Sending Party's Confirmation shall be deemed correct and binding on the Parties if the Receiving Party does not object to its contents within two (2) Business Days after its receipt. The Parties shall cooperate in good faith to reach mutual agreement as to any such objections and, if such agreement is reached, the Sending Party promptly shall send the Receiving Party a corrected Confirmation.

1.4 Priority of Terms. The following documents will govern in the following order of priority: (i) the Special Provisions (including any amendments thereto); (ii) the Marine Provisions (if applicable); and (iii) these General Terms. In the event of any inconsistency of terms among the various means that evidence a Transaction, the following priority shall govern to the extent of such inconsistency: (i) a Confirmation executed by the Receiving Party, (ii) a Confirmation not responded to by the Receiving Party within the time frame specified in Section 1.3, (iii) retrievals of computer or electronic messages and other writings exchanged by the Parties, (iv) the oral agreement as evidenced by a contemporaneous writing prepared by a Party but not exchanged with the other Party and (v) a non-contemporaneous writing prepared by a Party but not exchanged with the other Party.

SECTION 2 DELIVERY

2.1 Delivery Method. The Confirmation shall specify the delivery location, the delivery method (Vessel, pipeline, tank truck or book, stock or inventory transfer), whether delivery is to be made by Seller's transportation, Buyer's transportation or common carrier arranged by Seller or Buyer and the delivery location. When appropriate, the Parties also shall specify the applicable Incoterm that shall govern transportation of the Products and the Parties' allocation of their respective duties, costs and risks. The use of any Incoterm in a Confirmation or a Transaction shall be deemed to incorporate the latest version of Incoterms as published by the International Chamber of Commerce.

2.2 Marine Deliveries. If delivery is to be made by Vessel, the Freepoint Commodities LLC's Marine Provisions shall govern, with the priority of interpretation as described in Section 1.4.

2.3 Non-Waterborne Nomination Procedures. The delivery period shall be specified in the Confirmation. When delivery is by tank truck, the Party furnishing the trucks shall provide the other Party with one (1) Business Day's notice of the delivery date, the estimated number of trucks to receive or discharge Products and the total quantity to be available for loading or delivery.

2.4 Title and Risk of Loss. Title to and risk of loss of the Products shall pass from Seller to Buyer as appropriate for the delivery method as follows. Upon transfer of title, Buyer shall assume all responsibility for all losses, contamination and damages attributable to handling, transportation, resale and use of the Products.

(a) In the case of FOB, CFR and CIF deliveries by Vessel, when the Products pass the last permanent flange connection between the delivery hose and the hose connection of the Vessel at the loading terminal.

(b) In the case of DAT delivery by Vessel, when the Products pass the last permanent flange connection between the cargo discharge manifold of the Vessel and the receiving hose at the discharge terminal.

(c) When delivery is into or out of a pipeline, when the Products pass the downstream flange of the meter measuring the Products upon intake, or the upstream flange of the meter measuring the Products upon discharge.

(d) When delivery is into or out of any storage tank facility, as the Products enter or leave the tank.

(e) When delivery is by rail car, when the Products enter the receiving equipment of a rail car furnished by Buyer or, if Seller furnishes the rail car, when the carrier delivers the rail car furnished by Seller to the Buyer's destination.

(f) When delivery is by tank truck, when the Products enter the receiving equipment of the tank truck furnished by Buyer, or when the Products pass the tank truck's delivery equipment if furnished by Seller.

(g) When delivery is by in-tank or in-line transfer, when the terminal or pipeline executes the transfer order.

(h) When delivery is by book, stock or inventory transfer, upon the effective date of transfer as mutually agreed between the Parties.

2.5 Return of Seller's Rail Cars. Buyer shall unload Seller's rail cars promptly upon arrival and return them to the railroad within a 48-hour period, commencing at 0700 local time on the day following Seller's tender of notice of arrival at the delivery location. Buyer shall reimburse Seller for any railway demurrage at the carrier's contract rate. Seller's rail cars shall not be diverted except with Seller's consent.

SECTION 3 QUANTITY AND QUALITY DETERMINATION AND CLAIMS

3.1 Specifications. The Products sold in a Transaction shall conform to the specifications identified in the Confirmation, taking into account any stated tolerances.

3.2 Measurement. The quality and quantity of the Products shall be determined in accordance with the latest established API/ASTM standards for the method of delivery. All volumes shall be temperature corrected to 60°F in accordance with the latest supplement or amendment to ASTM-IP petroleum measurement tables (ASTM designated D#1250, table 6(b)). Quantities delivered into or from Vessels shall be measured by manual gauging using proven API-approved meters and static terminal tank gauges, or if shore tanks are active, by the Vessel's figures, adjusted with the applicable VEF. Quantities delivered into or from pipelines shall be determined using calibrated pipeline meters (unless pipeline meter readings are not available, in which case storage tank physical gauging shall be used). Quantities delivered into or from tank trucks shall be measured using calibrated meters or, if such meters are unavailable, by using certified calibrated scales or applicable calibration tables.

3.3 Line verification. Line verification shall be performed in accordance with API 17.6 guidelines and witnessed by the independent inspector. Any volume variances less than API measurement tolerances (i.e. +/- one quarter of an inch measurement of all involved vessel and shore tanks) shall be deemed as measurement tolerance and shall not be added back to the line verification volume. If no line verification is performed, then vessel volume with applicable VEF will apply. An applicable load VEF will apply when vessel receives and an applicable discharge VEF will apply when vessel delivers. If the vessel delivered / received volume is less than 75% of vessel's capacity, then the vessel volume without VEF will apply (unless a valid partial VEF is available and proven).

3.4 Inspection. Each Party may have a representative present at the time of loading, discharge, gauging and measurement. If a Party declines to have a representative present, the results of the other Party's measurements and tests shall be deemed to be correct. Unless otherwise agreed, the Parties shall share inspection costs equally. Certificates of quality and quantity countersigned by an independent inspector shall be final and binding on both Parties absent manifest error or fraud. The Parties shall instruct the independent inspector to obtain and retain appropriate samples of the Products for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of measurement. Representative samples customarily shall be taken from the storage tanks from which delivery is made or by an in-line sampler, except for waterborne cargoes sold DES, in which case volumetrically correct composite samples shall be taken from the Vessel's tanks upon arrival at the discharge port.

3.5 Quality Claims. Any claim regarding the quality or quantity of any products delivered shall be waived unless submitted to Seller in writing, together with supporting documentation and reasonable details of the facts on which the claim is based, within sixty (60) days from the date of delivery. The delivery date shall be determined by the bill of lading discharge date, or title transfer date or other shipping document as appropriate for the delivery method.

SECTION 4 EXCHANGES

4.1 Exchange Transactions. The Parties may enter into agreements to sell and deliver to each other equal volumes of like Products at different locations over a fixed period ("Exchange Transactions"). The Confirmation for an Exchange Transaction shall identify the Product, exchange locations, differentials, exchange period and method for reconciliation of imbalances. Unless otherwise provided, the provisions of this Section 4 also shall apply.

4.2 Unit for Unit Basis. Except for quality and transportation differentials, Taxes, governmental fees or other charges specified in a Confirmation, exchanges shall be on a unit for unit basis without the payment of money by one Party to the other Party.

4.3 Imbalances. The volumes of Products delivered or exchanged by each Party shall be kept in approximate balance during the term of the Exchange Transaction. Small imbalances may be carried forward from month to month. If the exchange becomes substantially out of balance, then the Party that has over-delivered Products may cease delivering Products until such time as an approximate balance is restored. Within thirty (30) days of termination of an Exchange Transaction, the Parties shall agree whether to liquidate any remaining imbalances by the under-delivering Party continuing to make deliveries or by cash payment. If not cash-settled, the Parties shall schedule deliveries until the total exchange volumes are as near to equal as the mode of delivery specified in the Confirmation permits and any remaining imbalances shall be book transferred or paid for by the under-delivering Party to the over-delivering Party in cash. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any imbalances less than 5,000 Barrels shall be settled by book transfer or cash. Unless otherwise agreed, cash settlement of imbalances shall be computed by reference to the average low estimated market price over the month in which the Exchange Transaction was terminated or expired for the delivery location where the volume owed was due to be delivered, as published by Platts Oilgram Price Service.

4.4 Monthly Statements. Within five (5) days after the end of each month, each Party shall provide the other Party with an exchange statement and invoice indicating the exchange differentials,

Taxes, government fees and other charges for that month. The Parties also shall prepare and agree upon an exchange balance reconciliation for that month. In the event of a conflict between exchange statements, the owing Party shall pay all undisputed amounts upon receipt of the invoice and the Parties shall make good faith efforts to reconcile all areas of disagreement no later than five (5) days from receipt of the statement.

4.5 Other Notices. Each Party shall notify the other Party promptly of any cancellation of its agents' terminal lifting privileges. Each Party shall be responsible for any unauthorized liftings of Products by its agents or former agents until six (6) hours after the other Party's receipt of the notice of cancellation of such agents' terminal lifting privileges.

SECTION 5 DISCLAIMER OF WARRANTIES

OTHER THAN THE WARRANTY OF TITLE AND CONFORMANCE OF THE PRODUCTS TO THEIR SPECIFICATIONS UNDER ANY TRANSACTION, SELLER MAKES NO OTHER REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY, WRITTEN OR ORAL, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY THAT THE PRODUCTS WILL BE FIT, SUITABLE OR MERCHANTABLE FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. SELLER EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ANY WARRANTY AGAINST INFRINGEMENT OF ANY PATENT, TRADEMARK OR COPYRIGHT.

SECTION 6 BILLING, NETTING AND PAYMENTS

6.1 Invoices and Payment. Promptly after delivery, Seller shall transmit to Buyer an invoice (facsimile or electronic copies acceptable) for the purchase price of the Products and any other amounts due Seller under the Transaction, together with any supporting documents, including but not limited to pipeline meter tickets or documentation evidencing book, stock or inventory transfer, and such other supporting documents as specified in the Confirmation as required for payment. If an invoice is received after 12:00 P.M. EST, such invoice will be deemed received on the next Business Day. Except as provided in Section 6.3, Section 14 or in a separate netting agreement between the Parties, Buyer shall remit payment without offset, counterclaim or deduction of any kind via wire transfer of immediately available (same day) federal funds in U.S. dollars. Buyer shall pay for marine deliveries against receipt of an original Seller's Letter of Indemnity, substantially in the form attached as Annex A, if full set of original bills of lading and other shipping documents are not available. When a payment due date falls on Saturday or a non-Business Day weekday other than Monday, then such payment shall be made and considered due on the Business Day immediately preceding such due date. When the payment due date falls on Sunday or on a Monday that is not a Business Day, then such payment shall be made and considered due on the next Business Day immediately following such due date. Notwithstanding anything else provided herein, if the Parties agree to a book transfer for a Transaction, the due date for any payment for such Transaction will be the effective date of such book transfer.

6.2 Interest. Interest shall accrue on late payments at the Interest Rate from the date that payment is due until the date that payment is actually received by Seller. The payment of interest shall not be construed as Seller's agreement to extend credit to Buyer or to extend the payment due date.

6.3 Netting and Setoff.

The Parties may, from time to time, mutually agree to discharge payment obligations that are due to each other under Transactions on the same particular day ("Payment Date") through netting. Where such mutual agreement with respect to netting has occurred, the following provisions shall apply:

(a) For each such Payment Date, each Party shall aggregate to a single payment amount all amounts due on that Payment Date by that Party to the other Party, together with any interest, receivables or credits that are due one Party to the other Party but remain unpaid, and notify the other Party of that amount ("Transaction Amount"). The Transaction Amounts notified by each Party shall be netted against each other with any difference (the "Net Payment Amount") paid by the Party owing the greater amount to the other Party. The Parties shall confer with each other by no later than the second Business Day prior to any Payment Date to verify invoice amounts, the Transaction Amounts and the Net Payment Amount. Notice of the Net Payment Amount shall be given to the Party owing such Net Payment Amount no later than one Business Day prior to the Payment Date.

(b) The Net Payment Amount for a particular Payment Date shall be paid on that Payment Date. Each Party reserves all of its rights of setoff, counterclaims, combination of accounts, liens and other remedies and defenses to which it may be entitled, whether by operation of law, in equity, in contract or otherwise.

(c) The Parties shall confer and attempt in good faith to resolve promptly any disputes over any items contained in any statement or invoice or any disputes relating to the determination of the Transaction Amounts or Net Payment Amount. The Parties shall net and make such payments about which there is no dispute. Disputed amounts shall not be included in the determination of the Net Payment Amount and upon resolution of the dispute, the appropriate amounts shall be paid, together with interest at the Interest Rate from the date of the original Payment Date to the date of payment.

(d) The parties understand and agree that such netting is expressly limited to amounts owed from purchases and sales from one Party to the other Party and that netting out any other amounts due under this Agreement, for any reason whatsoever, including but not limited to, quality claims and demurrage claims, is strictly prohibited unless expressly set forth in this Agreement or otherwise agreed in writing by both Parties.

6.4 Bookouts. If the Parties enter into two or more Transactions whereby each Party has agreed to sell to the other Party the same Product at the same delivery location during the same delivery period, they may agree to bookout and cancel all or a portion of such Transactions and replace the physical delivery required in such Transactions with a cash settlement. The bookout shall be set forth in a Confirmation that indicates the details of the Transactions being terminated, the settlement amount and the payor. The settlement amount shall be the excess of the larger aggregate amount owed by one Party minus the smaller aggregate amount owed by the other Party. The identified Transactions shall be terminated to the extent specified in the bookout and each Party shall be released from all Liabilities arising from such Transactions to the extent they are terminated, except for the obligation to pay the settlement amount. This Section 6.4 shall apply notwithstanding that either Party may fail to (i) send out a Confirmation in respect of such bookout Transaction, or (ii) make changes on its books as a result of any such bookout Transaction.

6.5 Alternate Price Index. If the price of a Transaction is based on an industry reference index that ceases to be published or is not published for any period applicable to calculation of the Transaction price, the Parties shall cooperate in good faith to select an alternative publication or other reference source that reflects as nearly as possible the same information as published in the original reference index.

SECTION 7 FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

7.1 Provision of Financial Information. Either Party (the "Requesting Party") may request that the other Party (the "Providing Party") provide it with information sufficient to enable the Requesting Party to ascertain the Providing Party's or its Guarantor's current financial condition and for the Requesting Party to assure itself of the Providing Party's and its Guarantor's ability to perform their obligations under any Transaction or Guaranty, respectively. The Requesting Party shall agree to abide by any confidentiality obligations that the Providing Party or its Guarantor may reasonably impose.

7.2 Credit. With respect to any Transaction, Seller may in its sole discretion require that Buyer (i) post an irrevocable letter of credit in a form and at a bank acceptable to Seller at least two (2) Business Days prior to the scheduled delivery or book transfer date, (ii) prepay on the earlier of forty-eight (48) hours or one (1) Business Day prior to the scheduled delivery or book transfer date or (iii) provide an acceptable parent company guarantee at least three (3) Business Days prior to the scheduled delivery or book transfer date. Seller shall in good faith endeavor to provide Buyer with two (2) business Days' prior notice of the credit support required under this Section 7.2 when scheduling of delivery of the Products permits.

7.3 Assurances of Performance.

(a) Either Party (the "Requesting Party") may, in its sole discretion and upon notice to the other Party (the "Providing Party") or its Guarantor, require that the Providing Party or its Guarantor provide it with adequate assurances of the ability of the Providing Party or its Guarantor to perform any of its obligations under any Transaction or Guaranty, respectively, in an amount determined in a commercially reasonable manner, if the Requesting Party determines that reasonable grounds for insecurity exist with respect to the Providing Party's or its Guarantor's ability to perform its obligations under the Agreement or a Guaranty, respectively.

(b) Adequate assurance means security in an amount and format and from an entity acceptable to the Requesting Party, each as determined in the Requesting Party's sole discretion, in any of the following forms, as may be acceptable to the Requesting Party in its sole discretion: prepayment, an irrevocable standby or documentary letter of credit issued or confirmed by a bank acceptable to the Requesting Party or a Guaranty. Unless the Requesting Party specifies a later time period, the Providing Party or its Guarantor shall furnish the required security within two (2) Business Days following receipt of the Requesting Party's written demand.

(c) All bank charges relating to any letter of credit and any other fees, commissions, costs and expenses incurred with respect to furnishing security shall be paid by the Providing Party or its Guarantor.

(d) The failure of a Providing Party or its Guarantor to provide adequate assurances pursuant to this Section 7.3 within the time frame specified shall constitute an Event of Default under Section 14.

7.4 Failure to Deliver or Take. Unless excused by Force Majeure or the other Party's failure to perform, if a Party fails to deliver or take delivery (the "Failing Party") of all or part of the quantity as required per the Deal Confirmation, the Parties will resolve as follows:

(a) Seller Failure to Deliver. If Seller is the Failing Party, Seller shall pay Buyer within five local Business Days of receipt of notice of the amount due in respect of the month in which the failure occurred an amount for each gallon or Barrel (as applicable) of the Product of such deficiency equal to (1) the market price at which Buyer, acting in a commercially reasonable manner, purchases, or absent an actual purchase, would be able to purchase or otherwise take delivery of the Product in a quantity and quality comparable to the deficiency at the delivery location as determined by Buyer in a commercially reasonable manner plus (x) costs reasonably incurred by Buyer in purchasing such substitute Product and (y) additional transportation charges, if any, reasonably incurred by Buyer as a result of taking delivery of substitute Product at a location other than the delivery location minus (2) the price agreed to for the specific transaction; except that if such difference is zero or negative, then neither Party shall have any obligation to make any deficiency payment to the other.

(b) Buyer Failure to Take Delivery. If Buyer is the Failing Party, Buyer shall pay Seller within five local Business Days of the receipt of notice of the amount due in respect of the month in which the failure occurred, an amount for each gallon or Barrel (as applicable) of the Product of such deficiency equal to (1) the price agreed to for the specific transaction plus any storage, transportation or other costs reasonably incurred by Seller in reselling the Product minus (2) the market price at which Seller, acting in a commercially reasonable manner, sells, or absent an actual sale, would be able to sell or otherwise dispose of the Product at the delivery location, as determined by Seller in a commercially reasonable manner; except that if such difference is zero or negative, then neither Party shall have any obligation to make any deficiency payment to the other.

SECTION 8 TAXES

8.1 Tax-Free Transactions. Each Party represents that it is registered with the IRS to engage in tax-free Transactions with respect to taxable fuels. Prior to the scheduled delivery or book, stock or inventory transfer date, Buyer shall provide Seller with appropriate notification, exemption or resale certificates or direct pay permits as may be required or permitted by Applicable Law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon receipt of Seller's invoice, Buyer shall reimburse and indemnify Seller for all Taxes, together with all penalties and interest thereon, paid or incurred by Seller with respect to the purchase, storage, exchange, use, transportation, resale, importation or handling of the Products sold to Buyer, including any tax triggered by the transfer of title.

8.2 Ad Valorem Taxes. If any ad valorem or personal property taxes are assessed against Products sold in a Transaction by any Governmental Authority, the Party having title to the Products at the time such tax liability accrues shall be responsible for payment of such taxes.

SECTION 9 INSURANCE

Each Party shall obtain its own insurance coverage of risk of loss or contamination of the Products and appropriate liability coverage. The mere purchase and existence of insurance does not reduce or release either Party from any liability incurred or assumed under any Transaction.

SECTION 10 COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS

10.1 Duty to Comply. In the performance of its duties under these General Terms and any Transaction, each Party shall comply in all material respects with all Applicable Law, including all Environmental Laws. Each Party shall maintain the records required to be maintained by the Environmental Laws and shall make such records available to the other Party upon its request. Each Party also shall immediately notify the other Party in writing of any violation or alleged violation with respect to the Products sold under any Transaction and, upon request, shall provide the other Party with all evidence of environmental inspections or audits by any Governmental Authority with respect to such Products.

10.2 Mobile Sources Compliance. Each Party shall comply with all Applicable Laws relating to or regarding the quality, integrity, testing, distribution and marketing of reformulated gasoline and blendstocks, conventional gasoline, gasoline additives, diesel fuel, No. 2 heating oil and any other motor fuel or fuel product that may be subject to such regulations, including the provisions and requirements of 40 C.F.R. Parts 70 through 80, as they may be revised or amended from time to time. Seller warrants that all products delivered by it pursuant to a Transaction shall comply with all requirements and standards as may be applicable to such Products when delivered to Buyer based upon the place of the Products' delivery, including any required product transfer documents. Each Party shall maintain records that demonstrate compliance with the foregoing Applicable Law.

10.3 Pollution Prevention and Responsibility. Upon the occurrence of any spill or discharge reportable under Applicable Law or other environmental pollution in connection with any transfer, delivery, transportation or receipt of Products, the Parties shall take any action required under Applicable Law, with respect to such pollution. Even if not required by Applicable Law, a Party may take such actions to prevent or mitigate pollution damage as is required by any Governmental Authority, in which case such Party shall notify the other Party immediately of any such actions, and shall take such actions in accordance with the national Contingency Plan, any other Applicable law, or as may be directed by the U.S. Coast Guard or any other Governmental Authority. If either Party incurs costs to clean up or contain a spill or discharge or to prevent or mitigate resulting pollution damage, such Party reserves any rights provided by law to recover such costs from the other Party or from any third party. If a third party is legally liable for such costs and expenses, each Party shall cooperate with the other Party for the purpose of obtaining reimbursement from such third party. Each Party also shall cooperate with the other Party for the purpose of obtaining reimbursement from any other applicable entity or source under federal or state law. Each Party acknowledges that (i) no provision under this Agreement is intended to imply that a Party assumes any pollution liability for the benefit of or on behalf of the other Party and (ii) a Party shall not be liable to indemnify the other Party for any Liabilities in connection therewith, except as may be imposed under federal or state law on an owner of oil or voyage chargers.

SECTION 11 FORCE MAJEURE

11.1 Event of Force Majeure. Neither Party shall be liable to the other Party if it is rendered unable by an event of Force Majeure to perform in whole or in part any obligation or condition of a Transaction for so long as the event of Force Majeure exists and to the extent that performance is hindered by the event of Force Majeure, provided, however, that the Party unable to perform shall use commercially reasonable efforts to avoid or remove the event of Force Majeure. During the period that a Party's performance of its obligations has been suspended in whole or part by reason of an event of Force Majeure, the other Party likewise may suspend the performance of all or part of its obligations to the extent that such suspension is commercially reasonable, except for any payment and indemnification obligations related to Products received prior to such event.

11.2 Notice of Force Majeure. The Party rendered unable to perform shall notify the other Party promptly after learning of the occurrence of a Force Majeure event, including, to the extent feasible, the details and the expected duration of the Force Majeure event and the volume of Products affected. Such Party also shall promptly notify the other Party when the Force Majeure event is terminated.

11.3 Right to Terminate.

(a) If a Party's performance of a single-delivery, or spot Transaction is suspended due to an event of Force Majeure in excess of thirty (30) days from the date that notice of such event is given, and so long as such event is continuing, either Party, in its sole discretion, may terminate the Transaction by written notice to the other Party, and neither Party shall have any further liability to the other Party in respect of such Transaction except for the rights and remedies previously accrued.

(b) If a Party's performance of a multiple-delivery, or term Transaction is suspended due to an event of Force Majeure in excess of thirty (30) days from the date that notice of such event is given, and so long as such event is continuing, either Party, in its sole discretion, may terminate affected deliveries or any portion thereof under such Transaction by written notice to the other Party, and neither Party shall have any further liability to the other Party in respect of such affected deliveries or portions thereof except for the rights and remedies previously accrued; provided that an event of Force Majeure lasting in excess of one hundred and eighty (180) days from the date that notice of such event is given, and so long as such event is continuing, the non-claiming Party may, in its sole discretion, terminate the Transaction by written notice to the other Party, and neither Party shall have any further liability to the other Party in respect of such Transaction except for the rights and remedies previously accrued.

SECTION 12 INDEMNIFICATION

12.1 Right to Indemnification. Each Party (the "Indemnifying Party") shall indemnify and hold the other Party, its Affiliates, and their employees, directors, officers, representatives, agents and contractors (collectively, the "Indemnified Party") harmless from and against any and all Liabilities directly arising from the Indemnifying Party's (i) breach of its obligations under a Transaction, (ii) failure to comply with Applicable Law with respect to the sale, transportation, storage, handling or disposal of the Products, unless and to such extent that such liability results from the Indemnified Party's negligence or willful misconduct or (iii) representations, covenants or warranties made under these General Terms which prove to be materially incorrect or misleading when made.

12.2 No Third Party Rights. The Parties' obligations to defend, indemnify and hold each other harmless under the terms of a Transaction shall not vest any rights in any third party, whether a Governmental Authority or private entity, nor shall they be considered an admission of liability or responsibility for any purposes other than those enumerated herein.

12.3 Notice of Claim. The Indemnified Party shall notify the Indemnifying Party as soon as practicable after receiving notice of any claim, demand, suit or proceeding brought against it which may give rise to the Indemnifying Party's obligations under these General Terms (such claim, demand, suit or proceeding, a "Third Party Claim"), and shall furnish to the Indemnifying Party the complete details within its knowledge. Any delay or failure by the Indemnified Party to give notice to the Indemnifying Party shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations except to the extent, if any, that the Indemnifying Party shall have been materially prejudiced by reason of such delay or failure.

12.4 Defense. The Indemnified Party shall have the right to assume the defense, at its own expense and by its own counsel, of any Third Party Claim; provided, however, that such counsel is reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party. Notwithstanding the Indemnifying Party's appointment of counsel to represent an Indemnified Party, the Indemnified Party shall have the right to employ separate counsel, and the Indemnifying Party shall bear the reasonable fees, costs and expenses of such separate counsel if (i) the use of counsel chosen by the Indemnifying Party to represent the Indemnified Party would present such counsel with a conflict of interest or (ii) the Indemnifying Party shall not have employed counsel to represent the Indemnified Party within a reasonable time after notice of the institution of such Third Party Claim. If requested by the Indemnifying Party, the Indemnified Party agrees to reasonably cooperate with the Indemnifying Party and its counsel in contesting any claim, demand or suit that the Indemnifying Party defends, including, if appropriate, making any counterclaim or cross-complaint. All costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Indemnified Party's cooperation shall be borne by the Indemnifying Party.

12.5 Settlement. No Third Party Claim may be settled or compromised (i) by the Indemnified Party without the consent of the Indemnifying Party or (ii) by the Indemnifying Party without the consent of the Indemnified Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, an Indemnifying Party shall not be entitled to assume responsibility for and control of any judicial or administrative proceedings if such proceedings involves an Event of Default by the Indemnifying Party under these General Terms which shall have occurred and be continuing.

12.6 Insurance. The mere purchase and existence of insurance does not reduce or release either Party from any liability incurred or assumed under any Transaction.

SECTION 13 EXCHANGE OF FUTURES FOR PHYSICAL

If a Transaction is part of an exchange of futures for physical ("EFP") transaction in accordance with the rules and regulations of the New York Mercantile Exchange ("NYMEX"), then Buyer shall sell and Seller shall buy the number of NYMEX futures contracts for the specified Product and month provided in the terms of the Transaction. The Parties shall agree upon a per gallon price prior to expiration of the futures contract and the scheduled delivery date. If the Parties do not agree to a price, the price shall be the NYMEX settlement price on the day the futures contract terminates trading. The number of futures contracts shall be rounded to the nearest 1000 Barrels, with any imbalance priced at the purchase price specified in the confirmation. The EFP shall be posted immediately upon establishment of the price. If the EFP is not posted within one (1) Business Day of establishment of the price, then the Transaction shall revert back to a "to be priced" Transaction at the basis spread originally agreed upon, and Seller and Buyer shall establish new prices based on the prevailing futures value. Each Party shall comply with all applicable NYMEX rules and regulations then in effect.

SECTION 14 DEFAULT AND LIQUIDATION

14.1 Event of Default. Notwithstanding any other provision of these General Terms, any Transaction or Other Commodity Agreement, Specified Agreement or Guaranty, an Event of Default shall be deemed to occur when:

(a) Either Party fails to make payment when due under any Transaction or Other Commodity Agreement within one Business Day following receipt of a demand for payment by the other Party.

(b) Either Party fails to provide acceptable security or assurances of its ability to perform in accordance with Section 7 or any Other Commodity Agreement or fails to deliver collateral under any Collateral Annex within one (1) Business Day following receipt of a demand therefore, or such other period as may be specified in the Transaction, Other Commodity Agreement or a Collateral Annex.

(c) Either Party fails to perform or repudiates any obligation to the other Party under any Transaction or Other Commodity Agreement, other than an Event of Default described in Sections 14.1(a) and (b), or breaches any representations, covenants or warranty in any material respect under any Transaction or Other Commodity Agreement, that, if capable of being cured, is not cured to the satisfaction of the other Party in its sole discretion, within five (5) Business Days following receipt of notice to such Party that corrective action is needed.

(d) In respect of a Party who has provided a Guaranty, its Guarantor (i) fails to satisfy, perform or comply with any obligation in accordance with such Guaranty issued in favor of the other Party if such failure continues after any applicable grace or notice period, (ii) breaches any representation, covenant or warranty or any representation proves to have been incorrect or misleading in any material respect under a Guaranty issued by a Guarantor in favor of the other Party, which is not cured to the satisfaction of the other Party, in its sole discretion, within any applicable grace or notice period or (iii) repudiates, disclaims, disaffirms or rejects, in whole or in part, any obligation under a Guaranty issued by a Guarantor in favor of the other Party, or challenges the validity of a Guaranty.

(e) Either Party or its Guarantor becomes Bankrupt.

(f) Either Party or its Guarantor consolidates or amalgamates with, merges with or into, or transfers all or substantially all of its assets to, another entity and, at the time of such consolidation, amalgamation, merger or transfer, (i) the resulting, surviving or transferee entity fails to assume all of the obligations of such Party or Guarantor under any Transaction or Other Commodity Agreement or under any Guaranty made pursuant to any Transaction or Other Commodity Agreement, either by operation of law or by agreement satisfactory to the other Party or otherwise or, (ii) in the reasonable opinion of the other Party, the creditworthiness of the successor, surviving or transferee entity, taking into account any Guaranty, is materially weaker than immediately prior to the consolidation, amalgamation, merger or transfer.

(g) Either Party or its Guarantor (i) defaults under a Specified Agreement and, after giving effect to any applicable notice requirement or grace period, there occurs a liquidation of, an acceleration of obligations under, or an early termination of, that Specified Agreement or (ii) defaults, after giving effect to any applicable notice requirement or grace period, in making any payment or delivery due on the last payment, delivery or exchange date of, or any payment on early termination of, a Specified Agreement (or such default continues for at least two (2) Business Days if there is no applicable notice requirement or grace period).

(h) The failure of either Party or its Guarantor to make payment when due or other event of default under one or more agreements or instruments relating to Specified Indebtedness in an aggregate amount (individually or collectively) equal to the greater of three (3) percent of its shareholder's or its Guarantor's equity or $20,000,000, which has resulted in such Specified Indebtedness becoming due and payable under such agreements or instruments before it would otherwise have been due and payable, or defaults in making one or more payments on the due date thereof in an aggregate amount (individually or collectively) equal to the greater of three (3) percent of its shareholder's or its Guarantor's equity or $20,000,000 under such agreements or instruments after giving effect to any applicable notice requirement or grace period).

(i) An assignment by either Party in violation of the provisions of Section 17.

14.2 Remedies. Notwithstanding any other provision of these General Terms, any Transaction, Guaranty or Other Commodity Agreement or Specified Agreement, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default with respect to either Party or its Guarantor (the "Defaulting Party"), the other Party (the "Performing Party") may, in its sole discretion, in addition to all other remedies available to it and without incurring any liability to the Defaulting Party, its Guarantor or to third parties (for demurrage or any other costs arising from delay or otherwise), the Performing Party may do any one or more of the following:

(i) withhold or suspend its Obligations under any Transaction without prior notice to the Defaulting Party, (ii) proceed against the Defaulting Party or its Guarantor or both for damages occasioned by the Defaulting Party's or Guarantor's failure to perform, (iii) upon one (1) Business Day's prior written notice to the Defaulting Party, immediately terminate and liquidate all Transactions between the Parties by calculating Settlement Payments in the manner set forth in Sections 14.3 and 14.4 and (iv) exercise its rights of liquidation and setoff with respect to all Other Commodity Agreements and Specified Agreements as set forth in Section 14.5. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of an Event of Default described in Section 14.1(e), no prior notice shall be required.

14.3 Designation of Early Termination Date. When an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Performing Party may, by notice given to the Defaulting Party, designate a date not earlier than the date of such notice ("Early Termination Date") on which all Transactions shall terminate and the Performing Party shall then determine the Liquidation Amount as of the Termination Determination Date. The Performing Party shall notify the Defaulting Party of the Liquidation Amount due from or due to the Defaulting Party, after taking into account any collateral or margin held by either Party ("Termination Payment"), to be paid as provided in Section 14.4.

14.4 Liquidation Amount. On the Early Termination Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the Performing Party shall provide the Defaulting Party with a statement showing, in reasonable detail, the calculation of the Liquidation Amount and the Termination Payment, each as determined under Section 14.3. If the Performing Party owes the Termination Payment to the Defaulting Party, the Performing Party shall pay the Termination Payment once it has reasonably determined all amounts owed by the Defaulting Party to it under all Transactions and Other Commodity Agreements and its right to setoff under Section 14.5. If the Defaulting Party owes the Termination Payment to the Performing Party, the Defaulting Party shall pay the Termination Payment on the first Business Day after it receives the statement.

14.5 Other Commodity Agreements and Specified Agreements. The occurrence of an Early Termination Date or an Event of Default as described in Section 14.1(h) and f shall constitute a material breach and an event of default, howsoever described, under all Other Commodity Agreements and Specified Agreements. The Performing Party (or any of its Affiliates or its Guarantor in the case of a Specified Agreement) may, by giving a notice to the Defaulting Party, designate an Early Termination Date for all Other Commodity Agreements or all Specified Agreements or both and, upon such designation, terminate, liquidate and otherwise close out all Other Commodity Agreements or all other Specified Agreements or both. If the Performing Party elects to designate an Early Termination Date under this Section 14.5, the Performing Party shall calculate, in accordance with the terms set forth in such Other Commodity Agreements and Specified Agreements, the amounts, whether positive or negative, due upon early termination under each Other Commodity Agreement and Specified Agreement and shall determine the aggregate sum of such amounts, whether positive or negative ("Other Agreement Termination Amount"). If a specific Other Commodity Agreement or Specified Agreement does not provide a method for determining what is owed upon early termination, then the amount due upon early termination shall be determined pursuant to Section 14.4 as if such Other Commodity Agreement or Specified Agreement were a Transaction. If the Other Agreement Termination Amount is a negative number, and the Performing Party owes a Termination Payment to the Defaulting Party, the Performing Party shall pay the Defaulting Party the Other Agreement Termination Amount at the time of its payment of the Termination Payment under Section 14.4. If the Other Agreement Termination Amount is a positive number, the Defaulting Party shall pay the Performing Party such Other Agreement Termination Amount on demand, provided, however, that the Performing Party, at its election, may setoff any Termination Payment owed by the Defaulting Party to the Performing Party pursuant to Sections 14.3 and 14.4 against any Other Agreement Termination Amount owed by the Performing Party to the Defaulting Party and may setoff any Other Agreement Termination Amount owed to the Performing Party by the Defaulting Party against any Termination Payment owed by the Performing Party to the Defaulting Party pursuant to Sections 14.3 and 14.4. The Performing Party shall notify the Defaulting Party of any setoff affected under this Section 14.5.

14.6 Remedies Not Exclusive. The Performing Party may enforce any of its remedies under these General Terms, any Other Commodity Agreement or any Specified Agreement. The Performing Party's rights under this Section 14 shall be in addition to, and not in limitation or exclusion of, any other rights of setoff, recoupment, combination of accounts, liens or other right which it may have, whether by agreement, operation of law or otherwise, provided, however, that (i) if the Performing Party elects to exercise its rights under Section 14.3, it shall do so with respect to all Transactions, (ii) if the Performing Party elects to exercise its rights under Section 14.5 in respect of Other Commodity Agreements, it shall do so with respect to all Other Commodity Agreements, and (iii) if the Performing Party elects to exercise its rights under Section 14.5 in respect of Specified Agreements, it shall do so with respect to all Specified Agreements. No delay or failure on the part of a Performing Party to exercise any right or remedy shall constitute an abandonment of such right or remedy and the Performing Party shall be entitled to exercise such right or remedy at any time after an Event of Default has occurred. Each Party shall reimburse the other Party for its costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in connection with the enforcement of, suing for or collecting any amounts payable by it under these General Terms or any Transaction.

SECTION 15 REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

(f) Its obligations under any Transaction constitute its legal, valid and binding obligations, enforceable in accordance with their respective terms (subject to applicable bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, moratorium or similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and subject, as to enforceability, to equitable principles of general application regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(g) There is not pending or, to its knowledge, threatened against it or its Guarantor any action, suit or proceeding at law or in equity or before any court, tribunal, Governmental Authority, official or any arbitrator that is likely to affect the legality, validity or enforceability against it of any Transaction or its ability to perform its Obligations.

(h) It has entered into each Transaction as principal, and not as advisor, agent, broker, or in any other capacity, fiduciary or otherwise, with a full understanding of the material terms and risks of the same, and it is capable of assuming those risks.

(i) In respect of any Transaction, the other Party (i) is acting solely in the capacity of an arm's-length contractual counterparty, (ii) is not acting as a financial advisor or fiduciary or in any similar capacity and (iii) has not given to it any assurance or guarantee as to the expected performance or result.
